Newsletter May 26th 2021

Thursday May 26th all children dismissed at 12 noon to facilitate teacher in-service on the new language curriculum.

Our Annual Book Fair is taking place. Thanks to Ms. Chaney the children have an opportunity to see /hold new books and maybe even buy one.

O Farrell Uniform Company will be in our school on Friday 10th June 9.00am - 11.30 am so parents can buy the school tracksuit for the new school year, 2022-2023.

Active School Week is next week so we'll be busy and you'll probably see the children out and about as we walk the park and visit the neighbourhood.

Senior Infants Science in Action: The senior infant teachers are engaging with DCU and Dr. John White in a new and exciting project. Hopfully it will continue next year as we got off to a late start. Dr. White (our ex-inspector who was lovely) hopes to meet the parents of senior infant children on Thursday June 9th at 12.40 for about 40 minutes. We'll have tea and goodies too!

Incoming Junior Infants for September 2022

We welcome all the new junior infants and their parents to our school at 11am. You will get an opportunity to speak with Carambola, our hot food company, and look at the menu available for your child, , buy your child's school tracksuit for the upcoming year. We'll show you around our school and also give you an information pack. Please mark the date and time in your diary.

Gallery on our website has gorgeous photos of some of our Frist Communicants. We had the most calm and lovely mass on May 14th and the sun shone all day long. The party is happening some day next week!

Don't forget that the link to our group face book page is on the home page of our website.

Teachers have to finalise numbers for the school tours. If you haven't paid a deposit yet please check w/ the teacher or your child may miss out.

Sincerely, A. Plunkett
