

Newsletter March 8th 2023

Parents / Guardians:

February has flown by and now it's March. A busy month for us here in the Junior School. Remember we're closed Fri. 17th & Mon. 19th March.

Wednesday 15th March 9.10am Free & Fun Ceilí Dancing Class for parents & grandparents. Learn the Siege of Ennis, Ballaí Luimnigh, the Circle Dance, etc. Tea/Coffee available when you drop off the children at 8.50am

The children are learning two ceilí dances, and more if they're able. We're having our class ceílís on Wednesday 15th along with a dance off in each year group as the best in each class compete.

Comhaltas na hÉireann: guests playing live trad music for all the children on the 15th

Coicís na Gaeilge: We're trying to speak more Gaeilge in school this week and next. On March 16th we're having our Irish Assembly. The children will be singing in Irish, saying a dán and having a little conversation. Help them to practice at home.

Wednesday 16th March: Children can dress up in St. Patrick's Day attire

Hearing & Vision: The hearing and vision HSE Team will be in the school Tuesday 14th March to check the eyesight and hearing of junior infants. The forms were given out weeks ago. We're still missing some. If you didn't send it back but would like to have your child checked, get another one from the office.

TRÓCAIRE BOXES: are available in the office 8.45am - 9.30am this week.

First Confession / First Communion Meeting: Thursday 9th @2pm in the carpeted hall. 3rd Preparation Mass on Sunday March 19th.

Enrolments closing soon for Junior Infants Sept. 2023. Please let friends/family know if they have 'someone' starting school.

Carambola: new hot food added to menu. Don't forget to check it out.

If you are worried about your child's progress in school, academically or socially make an appointment to see his/her teacher. Don't put it off. Ring the office.
